

THE HERALD.

JNO. P. BARRETT, Editor.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 20, 1885.

It is the opinion in Washington that Kentucky will receive no more diplomatic favors.

This is not Dr. Meador's year to run for the Senate; it is apparently Brother Hubbard's.

In the Morgantown Republican is as long-winded as its editorial writer, it will not die young.

The poor President is having a fearful hard time of it: the Butler county Republicans have denounced and crushed him.

The revised version of the Old Testament was given to the public in London yesterday and will be published in New York to-morrow.

The failure of the Spencer county jury to convict degenerate young Crittenden is another stain upon our gallant, gallant State's escutcheon.

The Bear and the Lion haven't got up a fight yet. Because Gladstone is trying to avoid a long and destructive war, the newspapers call him white-livered.

Dr. John E. W. Thompson, a young colored man, and a graduate of Yale College, has been selected by President Cleveland to be Minister Resident and Consul General of the United States to Haiti.

The Ohio Legislature has enacted a law prohibiting all dealing in "margin" "futures," and persons engaged in these transactions will be subjected to heavy fines and imprisonment.

In Texas last week a mob of citizens released by force of arms forty convicts who were at work on a farm outside the penitentiary walls. The feeling against convict labor in direct opposition to free labor, was the cause of the mob's action.

Riel, the half-breed rebel in the Northwest Territory, was captured Saturday by Canadian scouts. He said he intended to surrender anyhow. He claimed that he was not the main leader in the rebellion. The capture of Riel will probably end the insurrection.

Gen. James T. Robinson, of Lexington, has been appointed Collector of Internal Revenue for the Seventh Kentucky District, the place Capt. Blackburn lost for his indiscretion when he was a young soldier. Gen. Robinson was a strong Union man during the war.

No United States Senator has yet been chosen by the Illinois Legislature. Weaver, a Republican, was returned in place of Shaw, Democrat, lately deceased. Over-confidence among the Democrats was the cause of Weaver's victory. It is not certain that Gen. Logan will be selected to succeed himself, though the Republicans have a majority.

Several cities throughout the country are taking sanitary precautions against cholera. An attack of this terrible pestilence is feared this year, and all precautionary measures are very timely. In Europe inoculation with the cholera germ is being used as a preventive. At Valencia, where the plague produced great ravage, thousands of people were inoculated, and a rapid abatement of the epidemic was noted as a result. Inoculation against cholera would not likely be popular in this country, unless the destroyer itself should loom up and scare us.

The New Orleans Exposition will close on the 30th instant. The show has not succeeded in a financial way, but has given complete satisfaction to the immense number of sight-seers that have visited it. Expositions are valuable as factors to improve business and culture, and inspire a better public feeling in the nation. People of different communities get acquainted with each other, and thus misunderstandings are corrected, and friendly associations founded. By no more convenient way can this be done than by the reasonable occurrence of these great exhibits of industry and art.

Bishop Hoon, a colored Methodist preacher, and a prominent man, was in Louisville recently, and while there was interviewed by a reporter in regard to the present condition and prospects of his race. He thought his people had improved remarkably rapidly since the war, had become less superstitious, and more adapted to the social requirements of a citizen. He rejoiced to believe that the color line in politics was fast passing away. It would certainly be best for both whites and blacks. The negroes in the South, he said, were largely indebted to the white people for aid and encouragement in educational matters. The Bishop had met President Cleveland, was well pleased with him, and he and his people were becoming convinced that the President was a grand man and meant to do what was right by them. The Bishop showed his good sense in the following remarks of his:

"As to the social feature of the great race problem my mind is fully made up. There is less mixing of the blood now than formerly. Ten or twenty years ago one-fifth of every congregation were negroes, whereas now they do not make up one-tenth. If any approach is made to wards social equality it will have to come from the whites. Our race will maintain its identity for ages yet to come. We're going to live here together in peace and harmony for years. We are necessary for each other. I don't want 'social equality,' so-called. I simply want my rights; I want to be able to buy anything I want like other people and am oppressed to obtaining my presence where I am not wanted. And that is the sentiment of all my people, with but a few silly exceptions, who wish to be noticed in the cars and at the hotels."

GET READY.

Mr. Jesse S. Williams, of Beaver Dam, was nominated by the Democrats at the primary election last Saturday to represent Ohio county in the next General Assembly. The total vote cast was very small, caused by the death of contention between the two candidates on any question of public interest. Mr. Williams' majority was a large one, over a worthy competitor. Dr. Patterson is a thorough gentleman, as well as a Democrat, and will not get mad and renounce allegiance to the party he has very faithfully and effectively served, because he was not its choice last Saturday.

Mr. Williams was the Democratic nominee four years ago for the place he now aspires to; he beat a tough and veteran Republican warrior, and gave general satisfaction in the performance of his official duties. He is sound on the convict-labor question, is a friend to education and to temperance, and what entirely pleases the average Dark and Bloody Grounder, is for low taxation. He can be signally elected in August if his political companions strive anything like they did when Dick Hocker was made High Sheriff.

The glorious victory in November last affords us no reason to relax our discipline and hardihood, and succumb to the enervating effects of prosperity's sunshine; for our ancient enemy, though routed and confounded, will soon recover, is indeed recovering, and will pester us still, will hang about us, like the red-skins used to do in colonial times, about the settlements of our fore-fathers, like wild beasts, once drunk of blood, that prowled around a Dutch kraal in Basutoland. We must be prepared to resist him. Everlasting alertness is the price of office.

Rockport.

The primary election at this place Saturday was exceedingly dull. Something paralyzed our political nerves. It was so tame that "Homestead Tobacco Grower" could not have stimulated the occasion sufficient to raise a row. The result was 20 votes cast for Williams and 18 for Patterson. By the way, when the last hope of an Ohio county man for the State Senate is gone, we still have a more than Roland for the prospective Oliver in Bob Thomas, editor of the Central City Argus. He is just of the right caliber to fill the air with (—) relays every shot. (Ill will this ellipsis immediately after the 20th of June.)

Mr. Wm. Martin, of Henderson, came up last week and left with his daughter, Miss Rosa, for home, Friday. Thirteen sullen looking tigers were unloaded here the 12th inst., and shipped for Aldrie on the steamer Bowling Green. Eighty more will be brought down from Frankfort to-morrow night on the 1 o'clock train. They all go to Aldrie to quarry rock for the branch penitentiary at Kuttawa. It is said that Wepler, who is serving a two year's sentence for killing Harry Clay, of Louisville, will be brought down. The untimely death of promising young Clay, the grandson of the great Henry Clay, at the hands of this man, made Wepler notorious, and he will be looked for with the most eager curiosity.

Slightly. Sticks.

Horton Mack.

HORTON MACK, May 18, 1885.

Business is very good at this place, as the stove factory has started, and men are working in the woods extensively.

Mr. J. J. Hyatt, of Louisville, was in Horton this week on business.

Mr. R. H. Hines, of Logansport, Ky., formerly of this place, gave us a call on Sunday last.

Mr. F. W. Wymond loaded his stove mill, at Horton switch, and shipped it to East Troy, Tenn.

Rev. L. M. Russell entertained a large congregation at Bethel church on Sunday last with an able sermon, after which Bro. G. J. Bean baptized the little son of Mr. Elm Rowell. Bro. Rowell is here waiting on his brother Crit, who had a leg broken by jumping from a car while in motion. Crit has been cured from Mr. John Walla's to R. B. Thompson's, where he will remain until he is able to be carried home.

Kentucky Patents.

The following patents were granted for the week ending May 12th, 1885, reported especially for this paper by Jos. H. Hunter, Solicitor of American and Foreign Patents, 930 F Street, Washington, D. C.:
Joe Fennell, Cynthia, horse boot.
E. W. Van Duzen, Jr., Newport, cooking stove.

Dr. J. W. Meador for Senator.

LAWSON, KY., May 5, 1885.

Please permit me through the columns of your paper to say a few words to the voters of Ohio county and the 8th Senatorial District. I would more particularly address myself to the Republican portion of it.

I see that quite a number of the Republican voters of Hartford and Rosine have signed a call on Mr. E. C. Hubbard to accept the nomination for the State Senate. I am not a little surprised to see it. However, I want it distinctly understood that I consider Mr. Hubbard a very worthy gentleman and well qualified for the position, yet justice demands that the claims of another gentleman be considered. Yes, another gentleman equally as well qualified, a self-made man and one who has borne the brunt in several contests. That man is no other than Dr. Jas. W. Meador, of the Fordville district in Ohio county. In 1871 he led a forlorn hope as the Republican candidate for Representative. In 1873 he was their nominee and defeated the nominee of the Democratic party by a majority of 292. In 1875 he was desirous of an endorsement, but the Republican committee deemed it expedient to leave the field clear, so he withdrew at their bidding and Mr. Hocker had a walk-over alone. In 1877, in spite of some of the leaders, the hardy yeomanry elected him their Representative over the Democratic nominee, by a majority of 58. In 1879, as we all know, a little Republican paper called the Ohio County News was started at Hartford. The Republican party aimed to try their strength and make a party fight. When I say the Republican party in this connection (referring to the Ohio County News and party fight), I have reference to the leaders, those who take an interest in party success. They met in convention at Hartford and without the knowledge or consent of Dr. Meador nominated him as their candidate for Representative. At that time Dr. Meador was in delicate health; his wife bedridden with consumption, and his affairs generally in such condition that he could not with much prospect of success make the race. He sent a letter of declination, which letter was not published by said Ohio County News. At Hartford the word was, as I was informed, "We will run him anyway." Finally he consented to make the race, but did it under protest, believing, as he expressed himself to me and to others, that he was "going to the slaughter." He was, it seems, firmly of the opinion that it would be impossible for him to be successful when party lines were drawn.

All who know him know that Dr. Meador is liberal-minded in politics, and this and other reasons more substantial have in every race secured for him a great many Democratic votes. The Ohio County News being opposed by the HERALD (more ably edited) drew party lines. Dr. Meador more plainly than any of us, saw defeat before him. Many of us gave him the assurance that in case of his defeat he should have the nomination for the office of State Senator in 1881. He was defeated by a majority of 195 notwithstanding to resolve the largest vote of his life.

In 1881 the convention met at Rockport to nominate a candidate for the Senate, and at that convention Dr. Meador's name was not presented or even mentioned. Republicans of the 8th Senatorial District, which district Dr. Meador while your Representative helped to form, what is your plain duty? I was a citizen of Ohio county until a short while ago, and believe I know who are worthy the support of the Republican party in that county. Were I to answer for you I would say, Nominate Dr. Meador, an able man and the best cause in your district. B. A. W.

Grand Army Notice.

Sergeant Remus T. Whittinghill, Post No. 11, at Fordville, will decorate the Soldiers' Graves, at the Whittinghill Cemetery, on the farm of the Sergeant's father, Peter T. Whittinghill, near the Breckenridge county line, on Saturday, May the 30th, 1885. The orations will be delivered by Captain Anderson Byers, of Grayson County, James G. Haswell, of Harboursburg, and Dr. J. W. Meador, of Shreve, Ohio County, and others. The public in general are invited to attend this solemn service, regardless of political opinion. Dinner will be prepared on the ground for all and there will be music with life and drum.

Greenback Convention.

At the Senatorial Convention of the National Greenback party of the 8th Senatorial District, held at Morgantown, Ky., May 11, 1885, Jas. H. Gully was called to order by C. W. Neel, Chairman of the County Committee, and on motion, N. T. Howard was chosen Chairman and S. H. Tanner Secretary. On motion the Chairman appointed J. W. Ward, W. S. Taylor, Granville Gray, J. C. Berry and J. W. Goodman a committee on resolutions, who, after retiring, reported the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the National Greenback party of the 8th Senatorial District, in Convention assembled, announce the following principles:

1st. We declare the Republican party by its financial Legislation has shown that it ought not to be trusted with power, it has fostered monopolies to the detriment of the people. It has collected more than three thousand million of dollars in taxes from the people to pay on the bonded debt of the nation, and while it is true that the national debt has been reduced in number of the volume of money, prices of labor and property have been so decreased that it would now take more days work, more bales of cotton, pounds of tobacco, bushels of corn or wheat to pay the public debt than it would have taken at the close of the war at the prices then. The Democratic President is advocating the same financial policy as that pursued by the Republican party. The object and the result of such a policy is to oppress the many for the benefit of the few.

2d. We still rejoice that the Supreme Court of the United States, despite the skill and ability of the attorney of the shysters, decided that our monetary values are constitutional.

3d. We demand that the coinage of the 42½ gr silver dollar, which was the original standard of value from the organization of the Government until demonstrated in the interest of funded wealth and monopolies to be funded and unlimited, the same as gold coinage, and we denounce all attempts to suspend the coinage of silver.

4th. If there be any surplus of silver dollars in the Treasury, as was said by Arthur and Cleveland, we demand that they be used to pay the bonded debt of the nation and thus increase the circulating medium and stop the interest which is eating up the substance of the people.

5th. The thinks of all good people are due to those gallant and patriotic Congressmen of all parties, who understood the combined assault of the outgoing and incoming administrations made against silver money. Their names will go down to posterity linked with the patriots and sages of all ages.

6th. If it is necessary that either gold or silver should be the standard of value, but no such necessities exist, silver is the most suitable and should be made the standard rather than gold, as it is better adapted for a circulating medium than gold. Legal tender greenback money is a better circulating medium than either gold or silver.

7th. We demand a large volume of money and a low rate of taxation and all taxes should be justly and fairly imposed.

Republican Convention.

Pursuant to call, the Republicans of Butler county met in convention in the courthouse in Morgantown, Ky., on Monday, the 11th day of May, and was called to order by C. W. Neel, Chairman of the County Committee, and on motion, N. T. Howard was chosen Chairman and S. H. Tanner Secretary. On motion the Chairman appointed J. W. Ward, W. S. Taylor, Granville Gray, J. C. Berry and J. W. Goodman a committee on resolutions, who, after retiring, reported the following resolutions:

We, the Republicans of Butler county, in convention assembled, refer with pride to the achievements of the Republican party, and with pleasure to the ungodlike administration of President Arthur.

We refer with a feeling sense of admiration to the patriotic manner in which the Republican party yielded to the Democratic party without any threats of war or violence.

We congratulate the Republican party and the country upon the results of the investigation of the records of the U. S. Treasury by the Democratic officials that of all the hundreds of millions of money handled by the Republicans, that but one mistake and that for only two cents has been discovered, notwithstanding all the charges of corruption made against them by Democratic speakers for the last 24 years.

We favor a liberal pension policy and condemn the appointment of Lamar, an ex-Confederate Congressman, as Secretary of Interior, thereby putting in his hands the allowance or rejection of all claims for pensions for disabilities etc., incurred in the late war for the Union.

We charge upon the Democratic officials of Kentucky hubbly and corruption. They took charge of the State offices with an overflowing Treasury and they have increased the taxes from 25 to 52 cents per hundred dollars and that they have bankrupted the State and made it unable to pay its expenses.

We charge upon them the attempt to thrust into our mines and fields, convict labor felons convicted of every crime and abomination to compete with and disgrace the free labor of our State, and to take from them the opportunity to support their families by honest toil.

We condemn the Democratic party that while it has increased our taxes that it has given us no internal improvement, but on the contrary has given them away to rich private corporations.

We approve of the call for a national convention to meet at Rockport on the 20th day of June next, to nominate a Republican to represent us in the next Senate of Kentucky, and recommend as delegates to said convention: C. W. Neel, J. W. Ward, Jasper Berry, W. B. Taylor, Wm. Wand, Granville Gray, J. E. Taylor, S. H. Tanner, Mal Embrey, Wm. W. Embrey, J. W. Goodman, H. B. Moorehead, W. E. Githens, W. W. Reed, J. T. Rivers, Wm. B. Davis, Felix Gray, A. J. Johnson, Nick Johnson, T. D. Turner, A. J. Rush, D. Poole, Marion Reed, W. W. Moore, Phillips Tuck and all other good Republicans.

That we request the publication of these proceedings in the Green River Republican, the Butler county News, the Hartford Herald and Greenville Echo.

Which resolutions were unanimously adopted, after which it was moved to adjourn.

The delegates from this county to the Rockport Convention be instructed to cast the vote of this county for E. C. Hubbard, of Hartford, to represent this Senatorial District in the next Senate of Kentucky, which motion was unanimously carried.

The Convention then adjourned sine die.

N. T. HOWARD, Chairman.

S. H. TANNER, Secretary.

Mr. Morton Declines.

Messrs. R. N. Lamm, S. Phillips, and others, Hopewell, Ky.

In answer to your gratefully appreciated call upon me in last week's issue of the Herald to become a candidate to represent this Senatorial District in the coming Legislature, I take this opportunity to say to you that uncontrollable circumstances of a private and business nature hinder me from complying with your request.

Wishing our great party a long career of power and usefulness, hoping our county and district nominees will be successful in August, and extending to you my earnest thanks,

I am respectfully,

A. L. MORTON.

Tobacco Stolen.

Wm. Hoops, a worthy citizen of Sutton, discovered recently that some vagabond had been taking tobacco from his barn during the nights past, selling it to the miners at McHenry.

Mr. Hoops became very jealous in regard to the loss, but kept it a secret until it was rumored, not only that it was the parties he suspected, but that it was the parties he suspected, and made mention of about five hundred pounds of his tobacco having been taken to which the villain responded that he and two other boys were the ones that took it. Mr. Hoops then demanded pay for his tobacco, which was handed to him with the greatest alacrity.

Land for Sale.

On Monday, May 25th, 1885, at the Court House door in Hartford, Ky., we will sell on a credit of six months, a tract of 55 acres of timbered land, on the south side of Rough creek, same owned by Sanford Tichenor.
